

Jack Francioni School WEEKLY BULLETIN

February 2-Feb 6, 2015

“To acquire knowledge one must study, but to acquire wisdom, one must observe.” -

Kudos to Andre, Ana and Abbie for doing a great job with pupil supervision.
Kudos to Veronica V. for taking care of the plants in the office. Kudos to April and Angela for taking charge of the spelling bee. Kudos to All Staff for a wonderful potluck.

Family Literacy Night

Family literacy night will be held Thursday, February 12th at 6:00 P.M. Jack Francioni families will be invited to participate in literacy activities at grade level stations that parents can visit at their leisure. Come join us for a fun filled evening of reading activities and collaboration with other families.

Raising a Reader

Our Kinder classes will be participating in the Raising a Reader Program. This program will provide a book bag for each child to take home on a weekly basis. After each week, the books will be replaced with new titles. The objective of this program is to promote early literacy in students.

Italian Thursday Potluck

Our Italian staff potluck was a success! We enjoyed multiple Italian dishes, accompanied by beautiful cakes, and plenty of drinks. All had a fun time and many are already thinking of themes for our next gathering. If you have any ideas please share them with our sunshine committee.

Pupil Supervision

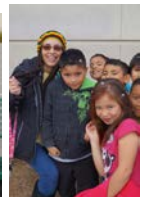

Thank you all for arriving to afternoon supervision on time. Grade levels signed up for two weeks of crosswalk supervision. Two people from your grade level are needed to cover our parking lot's crosswalks. The first person is stationed in front of the school crossing students from our school entrance to the parking lot. The second must stand at the base of our newest parking lot entrance, where cars enter and cross students walking home. Your efforts to ensure our students safety are greatly appreciated; keep up the great work!

CROSSWALK

Crazy Hair

Crazy hair Friday was a blast! Many students and staff created works of art with crazy styles. Congratulations to Ms. Yrigollen's class and Mrs. DeLaRosa's class with the highest percent of crazy hair participants. Super hero shirt day is next and will be Friday, February 20th.
