

Jack Francioni School WEEKLY BULLETIN

May 11 - May 15, 2015

Don't worry about a thing. Every little thing is gonna be alright – Bob Marley

Kudos to Blanca for helping us decorate the lounge for staff appreciation. Kudos to Miriam for helping us set up for the parent volunteer social. Kudos to Belén, Erin, Fatima, and Mariela for bringing delicious desserts and other goodies for the staff appreciation lunch. Kudos to Filemon for always helping our students!

An Artist at Jack Francioni

Mr. Lockwood, a local artist joined us for a fun day full of art. Mr. Lockwood brought many of his finished pieces to set up around the library for students to admire. He worked on an entirely new piece as students visited throughout the day. All students who visited were impressed and inspired by his work.

Special Olympics

On Friday, May 1st our Special Education students participated in the Monterey County Special Olympics at Monterey Peninsula College. All of our students, teachers, and aids, had a great time. Rumor has it that Mrs. Cortez was the best cheerleader there.

On Time Team Winners

The winners for our On Time Team drawing were:

- K-1: Mackenzie Valdez in Mrs. McGowne's class
- 2-3: Benjamin Cabrera-Camacho in Mrs. Ellison's class
- 4-6: Ariana Mercado in Mrs. Freeman's class
- Staff: Mr. Chris Freeman

Staff Appreciation

We had a wonderful week recognizing our fabulous teachers. Each day was celebrated in a different way; on Monday they received a cinch-sack backpack from the Student Council, on Tuesday Dr. Boyd provided coffee, juice, and pastries, on Wednesday each teacher received a flash drive, on Thursday the entire staff was invited to an Italian luncheon and received a lunch sack, and on Friday the PTO provided a Continental Breakfast for the staff.

Volunteer Social

On Thursday, May 7th we celebrated our wonderful volunteers. We honored those who supported our students and teachers in a variety of ways. This year we did something a little different and had an Ice Cream Social, the teachers provided all of the fixings and everyone could make their own sundae. Each teacher presented her or his volunteers with a certificate and a reusable bag and reusable water bottle.
